Vol. XII July-August, 2024 No. 4

Summer Ends, School Begins!!

When July rolled around, we had already come off of a very busy summer. In July we always have Monday Funday. Each Monday we meet to play a game: kickball, dodgeball, softball, and cabbage ball. That night we end up playing with real cabbages. The youth really love it. It's a good opportunity for the youth to bring their friends and to have a great time. At halftime one of the youth usually shares their testimony.

As of this summer we have six youth who God has called into the ministry. So, we give them every opportunity to share about their faith.

Second week in July we take a group of youth to Super Summer. This is a conference for the youth who are the leaders and want to grow with their relationship with Jesus. These youth come back from Super Summer excited about their walk with Jesus. It starts the school year off on the right foot.

In August we took the youth group to Coconut Beach to play volleyball. It was our last big event before the graduates leave us. Of the 11 graduates, 5 are going to Leavell College at the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

. I do a talk radio show on WSHO AM, which is the local Christian radio station. We moved from the foot of Canal Street to off of Williams Blvd. about 15 minutes from my house. Now I don't have to make that long trip to the foot of Canal Street. Because of the political atmosphere this show has really taken off.

Graduates!!

Over the past few years a revival has taken place in the youth group. It started with Wade who shared Christ with his friend Trace. Trace got saved and was really excited about his relationship with Jesus. He started sharing with his friends in the drum corps and bringing them to the youth group. We just watched to see how the Holy Spirit was moving in these young people's lives. One by one they were getting saved and were really excited about growing in their relationship with Jesus.

Through the rest of the year Wade was called into the ministry. Next, Trace was called. Than, Xander was called into the ministry. Those three guys are going to Leavell college along with Jase.

It's been exciting to see God work and even though they are leaving, they are leaving behind a lot of friends who know Jesus today because of them. And it looks like they will be filling in their shoes. But it's not the end, it's the beginning of what God is going to do in their lives. Look out world!!

Nate Michel!!

Nate is the youth minister at our church and is a remarkable man of God. When I first came back from San Antonio right before Katrina, I came back to First Baptist Church of Kenner. I taught Sunday school for the Junior high and Nate was one of my students. Now he's my boss. And this is how he did it.

First of all, Nate is a servant. He is always there to lend a hand and to help other people. What this has done is educate him in so many different areas because by helping he was learning.

Nate lived by high standards. By doing that it showed him as a man of character. When you have good character people know they can depend upon you and that you are trustworthy.

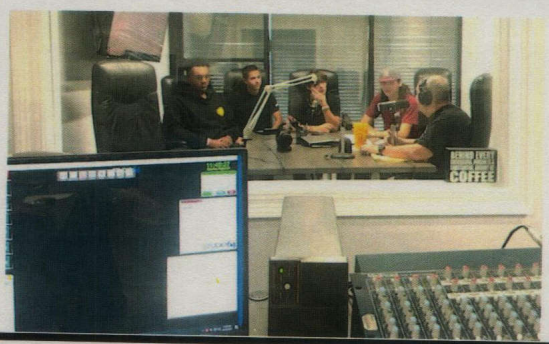

And finally, Nate always had a thirst to know more and more about Jesus. But it wasn't just knowing, it was identifying with Jesus so you can really see Jesus in him.

We just came off of an unbelievable summer. May 24 we left for Medellín, Columbia for a 10 day mission trip where we took 10 high school students for an experience of a lifetime. When we got home, three days later we boarded a bus for Covenant College in Georgia for five days for our youth camp. When we got home one week later was vacation Bible school. Two weeks later was Super Summer in Alabama. Nate not only comes on all these trips but he also does all the work that's necessary to make these trips successful. And on top of all that, he's married with two young girls that he raises. And he loves it all.

WSHO-AM 800!!

My students in my Sunday school class always ask me about what I talked about on my radio program. I was really surprised because they really got into it. So I asked if they wanted to go on the radio. They were so excited they couldn't believe it. So, one Saturday, four of my guys came on my radio program. I asked them all kinds of questions that pertain to teenagers in high school having to do with the election. They did a wonderful job answering the questions. So we plan on doing it next month also.
